

SpinX Games strives to offer a fair, fun and safe environment for all players. This Code of Conduct is intended to provide our players with a list of examples of behavior that may fall outside of our community standards.

Examples of Improper Behaviors that Fall Outside of SpinX Community Standards:

1. Improper Gameplay.

- Playing the game if you are under the age of 18.
- Playing the game in violation of any local laws or regulations.
- Creating false personas, including improperly pretending to be a moderator, administrator or another person.
- Creating multiple identities and multiple accounts.

2. Improper Communication.

- Posting material that infringes, misappropriates or violates a third party's patent, copyright, trademark, trade secret, moral rights or other intellectual property rights, or rights of publicity or privacy.
- Posting material that is fraudulent, false, misleading or deceptive.
- Posting material that is defamatory, obscene, pornographic, sexually explicit, vulgar or offensive.
- Posting material that promotes discrimination, bigotry, racism, hatred, harassment or harm against any individual or group.
- Posting material that is violent or threatening or promotes violence or actions that are threatening to any other person.
- Posting material that promotes illegal or harmful activities or substances.
- Posting material that is malicious or intended to harass another individual, including trolling, bullying, racial slurs, or hate mongering.
- Stalking other players.
- Posting personal or account information (e.g., addresses, email addresses, phone numbers, web pages, social media handles, or other personal information) of another person without consent.

3. Cheating, Scamming and Spamming.

- Botting, accessing or tampering with SpinX computer systems.
- Hacking or otherwise circumventing any security measure implemented by SpinX.
- Cheating, manipulating or circumventing game policies, game rules or game systems.
- Sending any unsolicited or unauthorized advertising, promotional materials, e-mail, junk mail, spam, chain letters or other form of solicitation to other players or SpinX accounts.
- Obtaining or attempting to obtain passwords or other private information from other players, including but not limited to, personally identifiable information or financial information.

- Developing, distributing, using, encouraging advancement or publicly informing other members of cheats, automation software, bots, hacks, mods or any other unauthorized third-party software or applications.
- Using bots, hacks, mods, game system bugs or malfunctions in SpinX game systems to obtain excessive Virtual Items.
- Scamming or encouraging scamming of other players or SpinX.
- Spamming or encouraging spamming of other players or SpinX.
- Transferring, trading or selling Virtual Items or accounts.
- Fraudulently obtaining or acquiring Virtual Items, accounts or other products or services.

The foregoing list is intended to provide examples of behavior that falls outside of SpinX Community Standards. This is not intended to be an exhaustive list, and we refer you to our Terms for further information and SpinX guidelines.

Such improper behavior interferes with the ability of other players to enjoy our games. Please note that if SpinX suspects that a player is involved in any improper activity, SpinX Games reserves its rights (at its sole discretion) to suspend the player account and/or prohibit the player from using our service until an investigation has been fully conducted and resolved.

If a player is involved in any improper activity, SpinX Games reserves its rights (at its sole discretion) to deduct any improperly gained Virtual Items from the player account; suspend the player account; terminate the player account; and/or prohibit the player from using our service.